

Dear Students,

As we prepare for another exciting game this weekend against the UConn Huskies, I would like to commend the majority of you for exhibiting good sportsmanship this football season.

I'm sure many of you are aware that UConn recently lost Jasper Howard, a cornerback for the Huskies. In light of this tragic loss, I am confident that all of you will show your Mountaineer pride this weekend by treating the Huskies and their fans with respect and courtesy. As Mountaineers, we need to show our support for the entire Connecticut football team and community by graciously welcoming them to WVU.

The Mountaineers will be wearing "No. 6" on their helmets during Saturday's game, and there will be a moment of silence before the game in memory of Jasper Howard. Let's follow Coach Stewart and the Mountaineers' example by applauding and cheering for the Huskies as they enter the field, and not booing them during the game. I encourage you to applaud the Huskies, in defeat or victory, as they courageously return to the playing field for the first time without Jasper.

Finally, remember to bring your ticket AND student ID for admittance.

Let's go, Mountaineers!

Ken Gray
